Directions to Caledonia State Park

Take I-81 to exit 16 (Chambersburg). Go east on Rt. 30 for 8.5 miles to PA Route 233 (Pine Grove Rd). Turn left and go 0.1 mile to the park entrance. The District office for Michaux State Forest is located on Route 30, 0.3 mile east from the intersection of Routes 30 and 233.

Where are the Highlands?

The Highlands region is 3.5 million acres running from south-central Pennsylvania, through New Jersey, New York and into northwestern Connecticut. For more information: www.highlandscoalition.org.

The Appalachian Mountain Club offers a variety of recreational activities in the Highlands. To find an activity in your area, visit: <http://trips.outdoors.org/>. To order Hike the Highlands cards, learn about upcoming events, and help protect this region, visit: www.outdoors.org/hikethehighlands.

Wildlands Conservancy has been preserving, protecting, restoring, and enhancing the land, water, ecological, and recreational resources of the Lehigh Valley and the Lehigh River valley since 1973.

SOUTH MOUNTAIN CONSERVATION AREA Caledonia State Park

Caledonia State Park is located in the northern most section of the Blue Ridge Mountains, known locally as South Mountain, and is surrounded by Michaux State Forest. The state park has more than 10 miles of trails, many that lead to the industrial past of the region including a blacksmith's shop. For a scenic hike take the 0.9-mile Thaddeus Stevens self-guided historic trail or the 2.2-mile Ramble Trail.
